

WANTED!

your logo design for the 2007 Annual Architecture Awards (A³).

The banquet is set to take place Wednesday, April 25, 2007, at the Champaign Country Club. The logo will be used on the buttons, invitations, program cover, posters, and any publicity for the event. All students (freshman, sophomore, junior, senior, graduate) are encouraged to submit a design. The winning entry will receive two tickets to the Banquet and $100 from the School of Architecture.

Entries should be submitted on an 8" x 8" square of stiff illustration board with the design contained in a 7-1/4" diameter circle. All graphics are to be in black and white and include the A³ symbol and the words "Annual Architecture Awards 2007." Please do not put your name on the illustration board. On a separate sheet of paper, include a copy of your logo design, your name, phone number, design studio location, and studio instructor. A digital file (unflattened Photoshop) or InDesign file must be submitted with your entry.

Limit of one design per person/team—no exceptions! All architecture students may participate. We reserve the right to modify the winning design if it is necessary to meet graphic standards.

Examples of some previous design entries can be viewed in the display case on the first floor of the Architecture Building starting Thursday, March 1.

Designs are DUE: Monday, March 12, 2007 by 4:00 p.m. to Jane Cook in Room 104 Temple Buell Hall. The winning entry will be announced by March 15, 2007.
